Mishicot museum to host Christmas event

Herald Times Reporter

MISHICOT — The fourth annual Christmas at the Museum, at the Mishicot Historical Museum located at Rockway and Randolph streets, will take place on several days in December and January.

The family event, which is free to the public, is scheduled for 6 to 9 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 18 and 19; Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 26 and 27; and Friday and Saturday, Jan. 4 and 5; as well as from 2 to 4 p.m. on Saturday, Jan. 5.

A huge old-fashioned tree again will be the focus of the decorated museum. The tree is decorated with hundreds of antique lights and decorations from the lifetime collection of the late George Schmidt. The tree also includes candies, cookies, rosettes and other edibles.

Community groups and individuals will provide music at 6:15, 7:15 and 8 p.m. The Friends of the Museum will serve refreshments, including Christmas cookies and hot cider.

The Mishicot Area Growth and Improvement Committee will host a Christmas social at the museum for Mishicot area businesses from 4:30 to 8 p.m. on Monday, Dec. 17.

The museum is handicapped-accessible at its Randolph Street entrance. For more information on the museum, call the MAGIC office at (920) 755-3411 or the Mishicot Village Hall at (920) 755-2525.
